

Noongar artist and performer Patrick William Carter works across performance, video, sound and painting. His work with The Lost Generation Project in 2007 and 2008 laid the foundations for a multi-disciplinary practice that includes elements of painting, dance, animation and musical composition. His digital and film works have been exhibited nationally, including in HERE&NOW13, Laurence Wilson Art Gallery, University of Western Australia (2013), Revealed, Fremantle Arts Centre (2016 and 2019), Tarnantih Festivals New Light (2017), and Enlighten Festival in Camberra (2018).

In 2018 and 2019 Carter was a cast member and contributor on You Know We Belong Together, a Perth Festival, Black Swan State Theatre Company and DADA co-production. He collaborated with Sam Fox and Sam Price on a film made for the Kagan Square Tower, Fireworks, continuing these collaborations on the 2021 Perth Festival film commission Wind, presented again on Kagan Square Tower and in Carter's solo exhibition, VEDI / SONGS from Patrick William Carter, at the Perth Institute of Contemporary Arts. This exhibition offered a survey of Carter's experimental collaborations across different mediums, and the development of his significant, ongoing collaborations with filmmakers and musicians.

Patrick William Carter

sweet pea

sweet pea is a gallery located at 58 Pier Street in Boorloo on Noongar Boodjar (Perth, Western Australia). sweet pea exhibits significant solo exhibitions from and represents Western Australian artists. Our aim is to build meaningful and sustainable, long-term artistic careers and to play our part in building a collegial, fair and accessible local arts community.

As well as facilitating sales, sweet pea also offers a range of art services including exhibition and curatorial consultancy, art advisory services and artwork installation. No job is too large or small, so please contact us to start a conversation about your job or project.

We acknowledge the traditional custodians and rightful owners of the land on which we are situated, the Whadjuk people of the Noongar nation. We acknowledge all First Nation elders past, present and emerging. This land was never ceded and we work in the spirit of reconciliation.

Artist

*Patrick
William Carter*

SWEET PEA

For all inquiries
andrew@sweetpea.gallery

@sweet.pea.arts
www.sweetpea.gallery

58 Pier Street,
 Boorloo (Perth), 6000

Artist

Patrick William Carter

"When I paint I'm happy. I like the bush, seeds, nature, flowers, my family, love, wrestlers and snakes."

Artist features new paintings by Patrick William Carter made during his residency at the Centre for Stories. Patrick's painting practice is influenced by his love of music and dance and he often plays songs while painting. Coming to the art studio at Centre for Stories and having a regular art practice is very important to Patrick in feeling strong and connected to himself, his culture and creativity. Through painting what he loves, Patrick creates symbols and stories. His use of colour is imaginative and playful.

Patrick is a strong, confident and performative painter: "I'm happy"

Patrick is supported in his studio by Kate Leslie, Tegan Jenkins, Zoe Martyn and Johanna Keyser through My Studio.

My Studio was developed by My Place WA to offer administration and producing support to disabled artists and collectives aiming to develop artistic skills, works and careers.

Artwork listings:

Art Money available, please enquire!
Art Money allows art works to be paid for in 10 monthly installments, interest free.

Kangaroo Prints
135 x 91 cm
Acrylic on canvas
$4,500

Wrestling
93 x 76 cm
Acrylic on canvas
$3,000

Noongar Boodja
125 x 90 cm
Acrylic on canvas
$4,500

My Family
132 x 91
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$4,500

I'm the Boss
132 x 91
Acrylic on canvas
$4,500

Patrick William Carter
63 x 50 cm
Acrylic on canvas
$2,500

I Love my Brother
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic on canvas
$550

I Love my Sister Rachel
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

I'm a Superstar
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

Happy
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

Happy
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

I Love my Dad
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

Happy
30 x 30 cm
Acrylic and enamel on canvas
$550

Smart, Handsome, Artist

